

Mountain Rescue Development Officer

Mountaineering Ireland is the National Governing Body for the sport, including all its aspects ranging from climbing to hill-walking. We wish to appoint a suitably qualified, motivated and talented person to fill this challenging new post which will play an important part in the development of mountain rescue throughout Northern Ireland.

The post-holder will be based at Tollymore Mountain Centre, Bryansford, County Down, joining Mountaineering Ireland's team of dedicated staff located both there and in Dublin.

Applications must be received by 5pm on Friday 10 July 2009.

Selection of suitable candidates for interview will be based on the full and proper completion of application forms received by the deadline stated. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.
