

Sports Hardship Fund

Purpose and lawful basis for processing

Sport Northern Ireland's purpose for processing this information is to facilitate the grant.

The lawful basis we rely on to process your personal data is article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR, which allows us to process personal data when this is necessary to perform our public tasks as a regulator.

What we need

When applicants apply for the grant under the Sports Hardship Fund, they submit their information via an online application form stating the reason they are applying for the grant.

Why we need the information

Any personal information given in the application and during any research for which we have awarded a grant, is used only to review the grant application and the ongoing administration and management of any grants we award.

What we do with the information

We may publish information about grants rewarded on the Sport Northern Ireland website, including the amount of grant awarded and the recipient of the grant.

We will include details of the award on the Government Funding Database (GFD) and may contact you to complete additional requirements associated with the GFD. This information is shared with the Government and Statutory sector.

How long will we keep your information?

Your information will be held electronically by Sport Northern Ireland for 7 years.

What are your rights?

As we process personal data in grant applications in our capacity as a regulator, you have the right to object to our processing of your personal data. There are legitimate reasons why we may refuse your objection, which depend on why we are processing it.

Further information on your rights can be found on the ICO website

Do we use any data processors?

No – we do not use any processors for the above.
